2010 schedule of exhibits

April 1–
May 31

Karen Kelly
Prints—black and white monotypes

As a graphic designer, Karen loves the process of art and design. She began printmaking six years ago. Her specialty is monotypes which she starts without any preconceived idea and lets the work create itself.

June 1
July 31

Bonnie Rosen
Acrylic paintings on canvas

Vibrant and joyful landscapes on canvas. Bonnie's exciting use of color adds to the mood and movement of local scenery.

August 1–
September 30

Lynn Davis
Collage

Elegant and expressive collage works on paper. Lynn, a local artist, uses her sophisticated sense of style and color in creating these contemporary images of fashion and fantasy.

October 1–
November 30

Kate Black
Post-modern glass fusion artist

Black's approach to creating glass is like painting, in a way. "My pieces come to me. I don't plan. I make the analogy to Mozart in that he couldn't write the notes down fast enough. It's a very rapid collage process that just jumps out of me—I never know what is going to happen. Like cooking, it's a total meditative process. If I go too long without doing it, my edges get ruffled."
